

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What are the required components of the program to achieve Employee Engagement Specialist Certification?

A: In order to achieve certification, participants will be required to complete all course components including modules, assignments, discussions, readings and various assessments.

Q: I see that it will take 24 weeks to complete, but roughly how much time each week is dedicated to the program?

A: Once the program begins, each of the modules will be available for two weeks, and participants will be able to complete the module components at their leisure within that two-week period. (4 hours per module or 2 hours per week, on average)

Q: Is this a self-paced program?

A: Yes, the course is completely self-paced. You can take modules at your convenience. We will release modules every two weeks, and you will have to complete the previous modules before gaining access to the new ones.

Q: Is there any continuing education criteria needed in order to maintain the certification?

A: There is no continuing education needed to maintain the Employee Engagement Specialist Certification. This program will offer up to 40 SHRM/HRCI credits that participants can use towards their continuing education requirements.

Q: How many SHRM/HRCI credits am I eligible for from taking this course?

A: You can receive up to 40 SHRM/HRCI credits.

Q: I am interested in attending as a group. What are our options for group pricing?

A: We welcome group participation and offer special group pricing depending on numbers. Please email info@employeeengagement.com or call Allan Benowitz 781-281-7256 x2 for more information.

Q: Is this program offered in any languages other than English?

A: Currently, the Employee Engagement Specialist Certification Program is only available in English. We will be evaluating the demand for offering additional languages as we move forward.

Q: Is this program available for licensing within my organization?

A: For those who are interested in running this program internally through their organization's LMS, please contact us directly at info@employeeengagement.com or 781-281-7256 x2.

Q: I am interested in participating but am not available to begin now. What are my options?
